AND GOD SAYS . . .

Last week I wrote of Seven Principles Concerning the Church, derived from Matthew 16:18. I would like to continue that discussion.

First, a word of clarification. I use a capital "C" for Church because I am speaking of the Church universal versus local churches. There are some good churches who are taking a stand for righteousness without compromise.

To review, I stated 7 implications derived from Matthew 16. They are: (1) building the Church is God's plan, (2) the Church must be involved and active, (3) the Church is in conflict with the world, (4) the Church is the spiritual authority in than the world, (5) the Church is to take the initiative in this conflict, (6) the Church will be victorious, (7) and the victory may not be easy.

I see the Church as the one who is leading a big dog (the world) on a leash (Church's God given spiritual authority (Matthew 16:19 – "whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven."). But the dog has a mind and will of its own (Romans 8:7 – "the sinful mind is hostile to God. It does not submit to God's law"), wanting to go its own way.

It is a conflict of values. The one who is most committed to his cause will ultimately influence the other. However, there are higher laws in play than just the master and the dog. God is in charge (Colossians 1:17 – "He is before all things, and in him all things hold together"). He changes the hearts of kings (Proverbs 21:1), thus he can certainly change a dog's (the world's) ways.

But instead of setting the direction to bring about righteousness, the Church has followed quietly behind the world, taking the path of least resistance. The thing is, the world doesn't know the way of righteousness unless Christ, through the Church, reveals it to the world. Even then, the world does not want to accept it. Therefore, it takes time and a faithful stand for righteousness to finally successfully influence the world, We call this 'reformation'.

So, if we want reformation, we, the church, need to speak up on the real issues and take a stand for truth, willing to pay the price of facing the world's resistance and mockery. Only then will the Church be respected and have the influence on the world it ought to have.

Here's How It Works:
Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Clark County Humane Society's Pet of the Week

"RUBY"

Ruby is the CCHS Pet of the Week!

Ruby came to CCHS with her six puppies from a local farm where there were just too many puppies. Ruby is a Terrier Mix who weighs 28.8#. She is so very pretty with a short-haired black and white coat with a few speckles on her legs. Ruby is just 1 1/2 years old, so she was pretty young to be raising 6 puppies.

Now that they have all been adopted, Ruby says it's her turn to find a new forever family. She's pretty happy she won't have to go through having puppies again! Ruby is a personable girl looking forward to a new life filled with love and adventures. If you'd like to add a sweet girl like Ruby to your family, please apply to adopt her today! You can submit your adoption application on our website: www.cchs-petshelter.org/applying-to-adopt. We have lots of wonderful pets available for adoption now, so please check them all out and then stop in to visit!

Do you have a love for cats and dogs and have been thinking it would be nice to help out at CCHS? Well, now's your chance! Whether it's a few hours a week, one day a month, or something in between, this is your opportunity to try it out. We are very much in need of volunteers! You can learn more and sign up on our website: <https://www.cchs-petshelter.org/volunteer> or email April at cchsoutreach1@gmail.com. Come join our CCHS volunteer family!
