THE NEILLSVILLE FIRE DEPARTMENT

AND GOD SAYS . . .

Make every effort to live in peace with all men and to be holy; without holiness no one will see the Lord. See to it that no one misses the grace of God and that no bitter root grows up to cause trouble and defile many. See that no one is sexually immoral, or is godless like Esau . . . (Emphasis mine; Hebrews 12:14-16).

In the late 1800's and early 1900's there was a strong holiness movement in the churches in America. But after WW II, believers began to focus more on worldly security, success, and pleasures than on holiness. Even as early as the 1940's the church had fallen so far that she hardly flinched when Bible reading and prayer were banned from the public school. The court even went so far as to rule against the posting of the Ten Commandments because some student may read them and obey them. It is no wonder, then, that the "free love" era of the 1960's followed. Likewise, it is no wonder that we find ourselves living in such an immoral, violent, and lawless culture as we do today for this is the necessary result of rejecting God and His authority for our lives.

But the problem is greater than this. It is not just about the world casting off the fear of God and living for their own pleasure, but the same issues have become prevalent in the church as well. However, this is not a new problem. Jude, the brother of James and a follower of Christ Jesus wrote about these people in the church in his day. He said, "They are godless men, who change the grace of our God into a license for immorality and deny Jesus Christ our only Sovereign and Lord (Jude 4).

But understand this, God "will give to each person according to what he has done. To those who by persistence in doing good seek glory, honor and immortality, he will give eternal life. But for those who are self-seeking and who reject the truth and follow evil, there will be wrath and anger" (Romans 2:6-9). Therefore, it is not so much what we profess to believe, but the way we live our faith that proves our faith genuine that matters.

You see, "faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead . . . a person is justified by what he does and not by faith alone . . . As the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without deeds is dead" (James 2:17, 24, 26). So, if you claim to be a Christian, does the way you live your life validate your claim? That, I believe, is the basis for God's judgment and, in the end, His is the only judgment that will determine our eternity.
