AND GOD SAYS . . .

Recently I came across an anonymous short piece called “Five Things Jesus Never Said.” I thought they were worth repeating with some of my own brief comments.

1. Follow your heart.
Jesus never said that. He said, “Follow me. (Jeremiah 17:9)” . . . because the heart is deceitful above all things, who can understand it. [If you follow your heart it will lead you astray].
2. Be true to yourself.
Jesus never said that either. Jesus said, (Matthew 16:24) “If anyone would [be my disciple], he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow me.” [If you are true to Jesus (i.e. “Lose yourself,” you will have the fulness you really want (i.e. “Find yourself”) Matthew 16:35].
3. Believe in yourself.
Jesus never said that. He said, “Believe in me.” (John 14:1, 6) “I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.” [Only Jesus, who died to pay the penalty for our sin, can save us and give us eternal life. There is no other hope.]
4. Live your truth.
Jesus never said that. When Pontius Pilate questioned Jesus about truth (John 18:38) Jesus said, “I am the Truth.” (John 8:32) “And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.” [Notice the singular truth. There is not more than one truth, and that truth is Jesus].
5. As long as you are happy that’s all that matters.
Jesus never said that either. He said, (Matt 16:26-37) “For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul? [Happiness is just a temporary state due to the circumstances (happenstances) we find ourselves in. But Jesus wants to give us the “fulness of joy” which continues regardless of the circumstances we find ourselves in. And secondly, Jesus wants to give us eternal joy, not just brief happy experiences in our short lifetime (John 15:11, 17:13)].

One final thought, “See to it that no one takes you captive through hollow and deceptive philosophy, which depends on human tradition and the basic principles of this world rather than on Christ” (Colossians 2:8).

It's Fire Prevention Week
Keep your family safe...
Join NFPA® in celebrating the 100th anniversary of Fire Prevention Week™ (FPW). This year's FPW campaign,
"Cooking safety starts with YOU. Pay attention to fire prevention™." The campaign works to educate everyone about simple but important actions they can take when cooking to keep themselves and those around them safe. According to NFPA, cooking is the leading cause of home fires and home fire injuries in the United States. Unattended cooking is the leading cause of cooking fires and deaths. "Year after year, cooking remains the leading cause of home fires by far, accounting for half (49 percent) of all U.S. home fires," said Lorraine Carli, vice president of outreach and advocacy at NFPA. "These numbers tell us that there is still much work to do when it comes to better educating the public about ways to stay safe when cooking."

“Look. Listen. Learn.
Be aware –
fire can happen anywhere.”

Through three simple calls-to-action, this year’s theme identifies basic but essential ways people can reduce their risk to fire and be prepared in the event of one:

- Look for places fire can start
- Listen for the sound of the smoke alarm
- Learn two ways out of each room

After leaving the home, go to your family’s designated meeting spot, established when you set up a home fire escape plan.
