VOTE YES
Only U.S. Citizens Can Vote

I went online and searched the Jackson County, WI Republican Party website to see what their position is on the referendum question on the November 5th ballot. The Republican Party says to Vote Yes. Only U.S. citizens should be allowed to vote in U.S. elections.

I went on the Jackson County, WI Democratic Party website and they say to Vote No. Scroll to "your candidates" and at the bottom you will find the referendum question where they say to Vote No.

Why would democrats want to allow the 30 million illegal aliens that are in this country to vote in our elections?

Is this why the democrats opened our borders 4 years ago? If illegal aliens can cross our borders and vote like the Jackson County WI Democratic Party wants, we will lose our country!

Please vote straight republican candidates at the county, state and national level.

Sincerely,
James Donnelly

AND GOD SAYS . . .

Every spirit that acknowledges that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God, but every spirit that does not acknowledge Jesus is not from God. This is the spirit of the antichrist. (1 John 4:2-3 NIV)

I think it was first publicly stated that America was no longer a Christian nation in 2006 by President Obama. When he said that there was, a minor uproar resulted because so many people believed that it was. After all, our nation was founded on Christian principles, was it not?

But Obama was not speaking of our national heritage, but of our present spiritual culture. Today we see the ramifications of our nation turning away from our origins and embracing a culture devoid of a godly influence.

We have indoctrinated our young people in our public schools in evolution so that God is neither relevant nor necessary. In fact we have gone even further, indoctrinating them in the idea that the idea or belief in God is a hindrance to our freedoms and our fun.

We have ousted God from our politics, our economy, our industry, our recreation, our morals. We have almost successfully eliminated God from all public life.

It used to be that at election time, all politicians claimed to belong to a church. It was popular to do so and would result in getting more votes. Not so any longer as evidenced by the recent political rally where two college students, apparently offended by Kamala Harris's agenda to wantonly kill the unborn through her abortion campaign, shouted out "Jesus is Lord" and "Christ is King.

Her immediate reaction was to declare that they were at the wrong rally and had them escorted out. So I ask you, was Jesus accepted or expected at that rally? Was he honored or esteemed? Quite the contrary, he was ushered out with the two students who named his name. .

In conclusion, I submit to you that this election is not merely about political policies but is really spiritual in nature about two conflicting worldviews. Do we elect a person whose idealism is that of man's reason as final authority, which leads to death, or do we elect a person who embraces biblical principle's of morality as authority which lead to life and prosperity? That's the issue.
