AND GOD SAYS . . .

Some time ago I listened to a radio talk show and the guest on the show said that we should only take into consideration the political goals of each candidate—and not his or her theological beliefs—to determine whom to vote for. Theological beliefs, he said, should only be considered when they affect the candidates political goals. What do you think?

I agreed wholeheartedly with the host of the program who responded by saying that a lot of people would take strong exception to that philosophy.

What happens if you build a building on a foundation that is not laid on solid ground? The answer is simple. Sooner or later the building itself will begin to shift and crack, and finally crumble. It cannot stand the adversity of the weather and climate changes.

The truth is, our theological beliefs are the driving force behind our political beliefs and values. You cannot separate the two. It may be faith in God or faith that there is no God, but either way, faith is foundational to our values and our values are foundational to our political beliefs. These beliefs, in turn, become political bills that become laws that are foundational to our nation. If our faith foundation is not solidly based on the truth, just as a building with as defective foundation will crumble, so will our nation. I am certain that that is exactly what is happening as a result of rejecting God's values.

The idea that we can separate the secular and the spiritual is a great lie that has been perpetrated upon society. The supposedly secular thinking is really thinking based upon the faith that there is no God or, at least, that He is not involved in human events. Thus, our life decisions are foundationally theological.

The creator God is the God of order and defines right and wrong. He has written these truths on our hearts (see Romans 2:14-15). Thus, when we reject God, we reject His order and values and therefore reject the foundation of a strong and lasting society. And in time, the result will be corruption and social failure. I believe this is what is happening to our own nation.

So, "When the foundations are being destroyed, what can the righteous do?" (Psalm 11:3). Isn't this the question many of us are now asking? What do we do now? My friend, God is our hope and our future. The truth is, we cannot live without Him.

REACHING OUR SENIORS WITH YOUR VALUABLE SERVICES IS IMPORTANT!

I am still me

My behaviors may change, I may begin wondering, repeating questions, have verbal and or/physical outbursts. I may resist personal care and begin hoarding. I may have sleep disorders and/or hallucinations or paranoia. Something may be bothering me. I am trying to communicate it to you in a different way now. But I am still me.

Try to stay calm and resist arguing or reasoning with me. Do not correct me but try to re-direct me. Stay calm, empathize and understand rather than raising your voice and trying to reason with me. I can hear your smile; it helps me to feel safe and secure. I am still me.

Remember that I am unique. Activities and conversations that successfully redirect one person may not work with someone else. My truth is the truth. I am still me.

Keep my routines consistent. It will reduce my anxiety and help decrease your stress. I am still me.

Adopt my activities to what I can do now not what I used to do. Limit my choices, provide gentle guidance, break tasks down into single-step directions and remain positive physically and verbally. I may have changed, but I will still be me.

Please don't say "no" or "don't do that." I am not a child. Treat me as an adult. Step away for a few minutes. Maybe we both need some time. I am still me.

Give me choices or suggestions instead of open-ended questions. Instead of, "Where would you like to go today?" Ask "Do you want to go to the park or the beach today?"

I still like most of the same things. I just may not know how to tell you. But I am still me.

I may still like hugs, be a part of the conversation and attend gatherings and events. But I may forget names and places. Keep me involved. I am still me.

Please advocate for me when I cannot. Exercise, diet and a positive environment can help me. Monitor and report my health changes. I want to still be me.

My memory is short-term. Rewarding me or offering incentives for better behavior now and in the future will no longer work. Negotiating with logic or reason will no longer work. You may become frustrated. I don't mean to frustrate you. I learn differently now, most of the time it is beyond my control. I can be frustrating, but I am still me.

Everyone has a life story. Please document mine; scrapbooks, videos, hobbies, likes/dislikes and my routines. When I cannot tell my story, it will be helpful to my family, friends, loved ones, caregivers and my care plan. So that I can still be me.

From: Mind & Memory Matters, A Project of Wisconsin BPDD

Each of us have a chance of interacting with an individual who may be experiencing memory loss, whether that is through a loved one, work, or simply being out in the community. I Am Still Me offers a great reminder of how our actions, verbal and nonverbal, affect others.

As people change, it may become harder to visit, and at the same time, those visits become more important. Interfaith's Time for You Dementia Respite Program staff and volunteers get the privilege of visiting with individuals with dementia. These trained individuals provide program participants with a safe place to engage with others who are experiencing memory loss by utilizing the reminders in I Am Still Me.

Interfaith also partners with the Aging and Disability Resource Center to offer a monthly support group on the first Thursday of each month from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. With many resources and partnerships, we are blessed to be a part of this wonderful community.

If you would like more information on Interfaith or our Time for You Respite Program, please call us at 715-284-7058.

Welcome Megan

Hi! My name is Megan Gerardy and I am excited to become a part of the Jackson County Aging and Disability Services Team as the new Elder Benefit Specialist!

I grew up between Wisconsin and Missouri and have settled down outside of Melrose with my husband and our dog, Hank. Outside of work, I love being outdoors and enjoy exploring our beautiful Wisconsin waters, woods and bluffs. I am thrilled to become a part of this community and look forward to getting to know and work alongside my wonderful team and community partners.

I have an educational background in occupational therapy, recreation management and assistive technology. I am currently learning the ins and outs of the Elder Benefit position and am looking forward to meeting with the people of Jackson County to troubleshoot your concerns and review available resources in our area.

Please feel free to reach out with questions or concerns. I can be reached at 715-284-3978 or at Megan.Gerardy@co.jackson.wi.us. Happy New Year – stay safe and warm!

Women in History nominations being accepted

It is that time of year again to submit nominations for Jackson County's 2022 Women in History nominees. Founded in 1996, the purpose of the Jackson County Women in History program is to honor the achievement of women in the history of Jackson County. This is done through the annual induction ceremony honoring the selected women's contributions to Jackson County's history.

Women in History is sponsored by the Women in History Nominating Committee. The ceremony honoring Women in History designees is traditionally held during the third week of March. Nomination must be submitted by Jan. 31.

In order to be eligible for consideration, individuals must be a resident of Jackson County, must be at least 60 years of age, making a difference in a community in Jackson County, making a difference in someone's life and volunteering their time and talent to benefit the community.

Past nominees that have not been selected within the last three years are resubmitted. Any nomination submitted more than three years can be resubmitted.

Nomination forms can be picked up at the Jackson County Aging Unit, Jackson County Sheriff's Department and Jackson County Interfaith Volunteer Caregivers. Send nominations no later than Jan. 31 to Women in History, PO Box 354, Black River Falls, WI 54615.

"SAILOR"

Sailor is the
CCHS Pet of the Week!

Sailor came to CCHS from another overcrowded Shelter. He is a Yellow Lab mix and is about 8 months old. He weighs 38.3#. He is neutered, vaccinated and microchipped, so he is all ready to find a new family. Sailor is a good looking guy with a short-haired yellow coat with a little white mixed in. Sailor is still a puppy at heart, so he has lots of energy. He's ready for lots of adventures and would do well as a walking or hiking companion. He gets along well with everybody and other dogs, too. He just needs to find his new family who will keep him active and busy with lots to do. If you're looking for a great new friend, apply to adopt Sailor today! You can submit your adoption application for Sailor on our website: www.cchs-petshelter.org/applying-to-adopt.

Do you have a love for cats and dogs and have been thinking it would be nice to help out at CCHS? Well, now's your chance! Whether it's a few hours a week, one day a month, or something in between, this is your opportunity to try it out. We are very much in need of volunteers! You can learn more and sign up on our website: <https://www.cchs-petshelter.org/volunteer> or email April at cchsoutreach1@gmail.com. Come join our CCHS volunteer family!

"Hi there, my name is Spot and I am ready to find a forever home. I have been at the shelter since August of 2022. Yep, that's right... I've been here waiting for my perfect family to adopt me for the last 6 months! I am an adult spayed female cat, that loves to get lots of kisses and cuddles. I am also good with other cats, and I love hugs from people of all ages. I am hanging out here at the Jackson County Animal Shelter just waiting for my new family to come take me home. If you think you and I could be a match, stop by the shelter to meet me!"
