REBECCA FRANKS

For Black River Falls School Board

★ We need to focus on Student Achievement by improving their scores with tutoring to any children that need it and renewed concentration on Education. The BRF school district has been at the bottom of WI school districts for over 10 years. New ideas and challenges will increase student confidence and grades. Check out schooldigger.com or see Feb. 28 Banner Journal on the 2nd page to see Math scores.

★ We need to focus on Parental Rights. Parents should be involved with their children's homework and schools should have transparency for all taxpayers.

★ We need to focus on Protecting the Children from bullying, drugs, and violence. We need officers in the school district to protect the children and staff so students can concentrate on their education in a relaxed and peaceful atmosphere.

★ We must get back to the basics and stop pushing political agendas onto the children. We need to help the students succeed in their education, so they can go on to college, trade school, or the workforce and achieve their goals in life. There are 1,600 students in the schools with 60% of the students below grade level in their studies. The student's lives are in YOUR hands, so please bring family and friends to VOTE on April 2nd to Save our Children's futures. The Children are counting on you showing up to vote.

AND GOD SAYS . . .

The National Centers for Environmental Information of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration reports that between 1980 and 2024, 178 major natural disasters have been recorded, with wind storms, tornados, hurricanes, and cyclones being some of the most destructive.

When I think about these storms that keep popping up, causing untold suffering and pain in our physical lives, I can't help but think of the winds of hostility against Christianity and godly morals that keep circling around us attempting to destroy all righteousness in the land. The attacks keep intensifying as the two sides get further apart. It seems that nothing traditional can stand against its onslaught. And in the face of these winds of adversity it is easy to want to just let go and allow oneself to be blown along with the wind, rather than stand against them.

The one person that keeps me from doing this is Jesus Christ. In a recent discussion I was in, we talked of the reality of Jesus and the fact that he stood against and overcame all the adversity that was aimed at him, gives me hope today because he did it for me.

Jesus, God's Son, came to this earth to demonstrate His Father's great love for us and his power to overcome on behalf of us. His suffering on the cross revealed the extent of his love and his resurrection from the dead revealed the greatness of his power.

But more than that, the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ touched the life of all humanity from Adam until the end of time. If Jesus did not conquer sin, I believe the world would not exist today. There would be no reason for life to continue. It would only mean that more people would be born to die and go to hell. And God says in 2 Peter 3:8-9, that he has not yet come back in judgment upon the world because there are still people to be saved. When the last person to respond to Jesus in faith does respond, then the world will end and judgment will come. In the midst of the howling winds of evil in the world today, Jesus still stands, alive and well, strong and true, loving us and wanting us to put our faith in him. Are you the one He is waiting for?
