AND GOD SAYS . . .

When one studies the epistles of Peter, it quickly becomes very evident that a primary reason for holy living is the hope of the second coming of Jesus to reward those who serve him. For example, in 1 Peter 4:7-8, Peter writes, "The end of all things is near. Therefore be clear minded and self-controlled so that you can pray." Then, following through with the same theme in 2 Peter, he says, "You ought to live holy and godly lives as you look forward to the day of God and speed its coming" (2 Peter 3:11-12). And again he writes, "So then, dear friends, since you are looking forward to this [the promise of the second coming of Jesus], make every effort to be found spotless, blameless and at peace with [God] (2 Peter 3:14-15).

However, Peter makes it very clear that living a life of self-control (that is, holy and godly lives according to God's standards) may not be the most popular life style in the world. To the contrary, we are told that if we choose to live a life of holiness, not only should we be ready to suffer for doing so, but we ought to rejoice because we have the privilege to "participate in the sufferings of Christ, so that [we] may be overjoyed when his [Christ's] glory is revealed" (Romans 8:17). Notice the relationship between joy, suffering and glory. What a cross-cultural idea that is.

Recent polls, however, reveal the fact that the average Christian's standards are no different than those of the world. Why is that? I have to wonder if our fear or unwillingness to suffer for living by God's standards, which are contrary to the world's (Galatians 5:17), is maybe a primary reason many "Christians" are so lax in living a holy life. Or could it be that this laxness is also the result of our focus on ourselves and our happiness and pleasure today rather than on God and what pleases him.

Ray Comfort illustrates this idea with the story about wearing a parachute on a plane. He explains that you if are asked to put on a parachute because it will make you more comfortable, in short order you will discard it. But if you are advised to put on a parachute because the plane is going to crash, then its comfort doesn't matter. You wear it for what is ahead.

God does not promise that everything will work out great in this life. Not at all. Instead he promises rewards of a fulfilled and eternal life with him in a place he is preparing for us that is yet to come. And we will inherit that place by true faith in Jesus, a faith demonstrated by living a holy life. It may not be comfortable to live it today, but it will be worth when we meet Jesus.

NOTICE THAT THE ASSESSMENT ROLL IS OPEN FOR EXAMINATION AND OPEN BOOK

STATE OF WISCONSIN Town of Pine Valley, Clark County
Pursuant to Wis. Stats. S. 70.45, the assessment roll for the Year 2024 assessment will be open for examination starting on the Tuesday, April 16, 2024 at 7:00-9:00 pm, N3907 Marg Ave, Neillsville WI 54456. Instructional material will be provided at the open book to persons who wish to object to valuations under Wis. Stats s. 70.47.

NOTICE OF BOARD OF REVIEW MEETING

Notice is hereby given that the BOARD OF REVIEW for the Town of Pine Valley, Clark County, Wisconsin, shall hold its first meeting on April 24, 2024, from 6-8 pm, at the town's hall, N3907 Marg Ave. Neillsville, WI 54456.

Please be advised of the following requirements to appear before the board of review and procedural requirements if appearing before the Board of Review:

1. After the first meeting of the Board of Review and before the Board of Review's final adjournment, no person who is scheduled to appear before the Board of Review may contact or provide information to a member of the Board of Review about the person's objection, except at a session of the Board of Review. Open book shall occur no less than 7 days prior to the Board of Review.
2. The Board of Review may not hear an objection to the amount or valuation of property unless, at least 48 hours before the Board of Review's first scheduled meeting, the objector provides to the Board of Review Clerk written or oral notice of an intent to file an objection, except that upon a showing of good cause and the submission of a written objection, the Board of Review shall waive that requirement during the first 2 hours of the Board of Review's first scheduled meeting, and the Board of Review may waive that requirement up to the end of the 5th day of the session, or up to the end of the final day of the session if the session is less than 5 days, with proof of extraordinary circumstances for failure to meet the 48-hour notice requirement and failure to appear before the Board of Review during the first 2 hours of the first scheduled meeting.
3. Objections to the amount or valuation of property shall first be made in writing and filed with the Board of Review Clerk within the first 2 hours of the Board of Review's first scheduled meeting, except that, upon evidence of extraordinary circumstances, the Board of Review may waive that requirement up to the end of the 5th day of the session, or up to the end of the final day of the session if the session is less than 5 days. The Board of Review may require objections to the amount or valuation of property to be submitted on forms approved by the Wisconsin Department of Revenue, and the Board of Review shall require that any forms include stated valuations of the property in question. Persons who own land and improvements to that land may object to the aggregate valuation of that land and improvements to that land, but no person who owns land and improvements to that land may object only to the valuation of that land or only to the valuation of improvements to that land. No person may be allowed in any action or proceedings to question the amount or valuation of property unless the written objection has been filed and that person in good faith presented evidence to the Board of Review in support of the objections and made full disclosure before the Board of Review, under oath, of all of that person's property liable to assessment in the district and the value of that property. The requirement that objections be in writing may be waived by express action of the Board.
4. When appearing before the Board of Review, the objecting person shall specify in writing the person's estimate of the value of the land and of the improvements that are the subject of the person's objection and specify the information used to arrive at that estimate.
5. No person may appear before the Board of Review, testify to the Board of Review by telephone, or object to a valuation if that valuation was made by the assessor or the objector using the income method of valuation, unless no later than 7 days before the first meeting of the Board of Review, the person supplies the assessor with all the information about income and expenses that the assessor requests, as specified in the Assessor's Manual under Wis. Stats. § 73.03(2a). The Town of Pine Valley has an ordinance for the confidentiality of information about income and expenses that is provided to the assessor under this paragraph that provides exceptions for persons using information in the discharge of duties imposed by law or the duties of their officer or by order of a court. The information that is provided in this paragraph, unless a court determines that it is inaccurate, is not subject to the right of inspection and copying under Wis. Stat. §19.35(1).
6. The Board of Review shall hear upon oath, by telephone, all ill or disabled persons who present to the board a letter from a physician, physician assistant, or advanced practice nurse prescriber certified under Wis. Stat. § 441.16(2) that confirms their illness or disability. No other persons may testify by telephone unless the Board of Review, in its discretion, has determined to grant a property owner's or their representative's request to testify under oath by telephone or written statement.
7. No person may appear before the Board of Review, testify to the Board of Review by telephone, or contest the amount of any assessment unless, at least 48 hours before the first meeting of the Board of Review, or at least 48 hours before the objection is heard if the objection is allowed under Wis. Stat. § 70.47(3)(a), that person provides notice to the Board of Review Clerk as to whether the person will ask for the removal of a member of the Board of Review and, if so, which member, and provides a reasonable estimate of the length of time the hearing will take.
8. No person shall be allowed to appear before the Board of Review, to testify to the board by telephone or to contest the amount of any assessment of real or personal property if the person has refused a reasonable written request by certified mail of the assessor to enter onto property to conduct an exterior view of the real or personal property being assessed.

Notice is hereby given this 1st day of April, 2024.

Clark County Humane Society's Pet of the Week

"MARCO"
Marco is the CCHS Pet of the Week!

Marco came to CCHS with his sister and brothers when they were part of an unexpected litter and their family couldn't find new homes for them. Marco is a Mixed Breed, with his mom being a Lab/Border Collie and his dad something big, we just don't know exactly what for sure. But at 4 months old, Marco already weighs 30#, so he's going to be a good-sized guy too. He's a handsome fellow with a medium-length coat that's white with brown. Marco is a happy guy, ready for his next adventures in life to begin. He enjoys being with people and likes getting lots of attention. He would definitely enjoy going for long walks to explore his new neighborhood. If you would like Marco to join your family, please apply to adopt him today! You can submit your adoption application for Marco on our website: www.cchs-petshelter.org/applying-to-adopt. We have lots of wonderful pets available for adoption now, so please check them all out and then stop in to visit!

Do you have a love for cats and dogs and have been thinking it would be nice to help out at CCHS? Well, now's your chance! Whether it's a few hours a week, one day a month, or something in between, this is your opportunity to try it out. We are very much in need of volunteers! You can learn more and sign up on our website: https://www.cchs-petshelter.org/volunteer or email April at cchsoutreach1@gmail.com. Come join our CCHS volunteer family!
