AND GOD SAYS . . .

The word “sin” is becoming a bad word. It is offensive to many. Maybe it will even become a “hate” crime to say that someone is a sinner. Nevertheless sin is a problem that affects all of us.

God says, in Romans 3:10, “There is no one righteous, not even one.” That’s right— every man, woman and child is a sinner. The passage in Romans continues by describing the nature and the actions of a sinner. In summary it says that a sinner is by nature, deceived, self-exalting, rebellious and without real purpose in life. By action, a sinner is foul, dishonest, hurtful, angry, violent, destructive, aimless, and arrogant.

This description is not very flattering, to say the least. But, from God’s point of view, it is the way he describes us. I should also mention that it is His point of view that really matters because he will be the final judge.

The evidence that God’s evaluation is right is that everyone dies, because the penalty He imposed on sin is death. Even those who say that everything is relative must admit that it is true that everyone dies. This is an observable fact.

But death is not the worst of the consequences of sin. The Bible says that “on the wicked He [God] will rain fiery coals and burning sulfur; a scorching heat will be their lot” (Psalm 11:6). In Revelation 21:6-8, this same truth is again expressed as God says “their place will be in the fiery lake of burning sulfur.” God is, of course, describing the eternal destiny of the person who rejects Him as Lord of their life.

But because God still loves us, He has provided a way for us to escape this destiny. The way he provides, and it is the only way, is through His Son, Jesus Christ, by faith, admitting that God is right and that we are sinners with a natural bent to sin. Jesus died to take our penalty for our sin so that He can justly give us life eternal. The only condition placed on us to receive eternal life is that must personally act on this offer. Each of us must personally confess our need of Him. Only when we do, do we personally receive His free gift of eternal life and escape His terrible judgment. This is the best gift ever offered with the most long-lasting impact on our lives ever given. Surely it deserves our honest and thoughtful consideration.
