Submitted by Philip Woolf in a humble unashamed defense of Almighty God Jehovah and his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

Calling All Christians of Monroe and Jackson Counties to a

SOLEMN ASSEMBLY

...as we gather to pray and humbly ask God’s forgiveness for disobeying His Word in the training of our children and grandchildren. In doing so, we openly acknowledge that for generations we have disregarded the loving, life-preserving Word of God when it comes to the education of our children. We also acknowledge the terrible price that has been paid for our dismissal of God’s Word in this way. Sexual immorality, broken marriages, shattered families, increasing ignorance of even the most basic truths, oceans of debt, and now a rapidly imploding culture of death are all consequences of having fed our children into an anti-Christian system of education.

We make no excuses and take full responsibility for our role in this. We humble ourselves in repentance and ask that Christ use this dark and desperate time of our own making to inspire passion and appreciation for the life-giving words that we have failed to honor in the past, including:

Proverbs 1:7 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge; fools despise wisdom and discipline.

Luke 6:39-40 Can a blind man lead a blind man? Will they not both fall into a pit? A student is not above his teacher, but everyone who is fully trained will be like his teacher.

Deuteronomy 6:6-7, 11:19 These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts. Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up.

Colossians 2:8 See to it that no one takes you captive through hollow and deceptive philosophy, which depends on human tradition and the basic principles of this world.

Proverbs 9:10 Fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom. Knowledge of the Holy One results in understanding.

2 Corinthians 6:13-14 I speak as to my children; as a proper response, open your heart to us. Don't become partners with those who do not believe. For what partnership is there between righteousness and lawlessness? Or what fellowship does light have with darkness?

Proverbs 22:6 Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is grown, he will not depart from it.

1 Corinthians 15:33 Do not be deceived: "Evil company corrupts good habits."

Proverbs 16:25 There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end is the way to death.

Hebrews 11:6 And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to Him must believe that He exists and that He rewards those who earnestly seek Him.

Psalms 1:1-2 Blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked or stand in the way of sinners or sit in the seat of mockers. But his delight is in the law of the LORD, and on His law he meditates day and night.

Exodus 20:15 You shall not steal.

Government schooling confiscates and redistributes money from property owners (who may not even have children) to pay for the government-run training of other people's children. This "legalized" theft is a violation of the 8th Commandment.

Pastors Leading in Teaching and Prayer:

Pastor Matt Trehwella, Mercy Seat Church, Milwaukee

Rev. Dr. Wayne Sedlak, Reformation Hope Church, Brookfield

Support for Those Seeking Christ-Centered Alternatives to Government Schools

After teaching and prayers of repentance we will announce additional meetings to be held soon to introduce families to Christ-centered approaches to education and query those who may want to help start a Christ-centered school. Our group is working on ways to help new converts to Christ who are in need as they turn from sexual sin, drugs and digital fixation.

WELCOME Ben Zawislan

As a lifelong resident of Central Wisconsin, I am very knowledgeable about the area from many aspects. I have an associate's degree in Criminal Justice, and served ten years in law enforcement, so I appreciate the trust that was placed in me. Along with my wife, who is in business management, we are raising our three children, which includes me coaching little league baseball, and teaching them my passions for hunting, fishing and just loving each day! I take pride in my community and am involved as needed, and that includes helping you with whatever your real estate needs are. Put your trust in a real estate agent who wants only the best for you!

AND GOD SAYS . . .

But whatever was to my profit I now consider loss for the sake of Christ. What is more, I consider everything a loss compared to the surpassing greatness of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whose sake I have lost all things. Philippians 3:7-8.

Just how contrary to one another is a Christian worldview and a secular or worldly worldview. If we consider the secular worldview first we can easily describe it by many of the themes popular advertisements, the slogans used in political speeches, or what is being taught in our schools.

I remember when my son was in highschool. When he was about to graduate, he was given a paper which was titled, "These Are Your Rights." Nothing was said about his responsibilities as a citizen of the United States. It just talked about his rights.

Then there was the Tiparillo ad which featured a young pretty girl smoking a tiny cigar like cigarette as the voice in the background said, "You've come a long way baby."

Maybe someone can help me remember the Coca-cola and Pepsi ads that emphasized how these drinks would help you experience life to the fullest.

Then there are the places that offer you to give you money a few days before you get your paycheck so you can spend it faster.

I think you get the point. The secular world view is all about me and mine. It is about the here and now. It is about my rights and satisfying my wants now.

Now contrast this with the verses I began this column with. One is really exclusive of the other. One is about the here and now, the other, eternity with God. One is about me getting everything I want, the other is about Jesus giving Himself for me to satisfy my real needs. The one is about living my life to give me pleasure, the other is about living my life in a way that will be pleasing to God.

It is no wonder, therefore, that as our culture is more and more captivated by the secular worldview that true Christianity and the secular worldview becomes more exclusive and even hostile to each other (Galatians 5:16-17). In fact, I would go so far as to say that this is the real issue facing our nation today. It is about which God we will serve; the god of self, or the God of creation and redemption. Our life ultimately reveals our choice.
