AND GOD SAYS . . .

The book of Ezra records the history of the Jews, who were exiled from Jerusalem under Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon. We are told that in the first year of Cryus king of Persia, Cryus released any Jews that would like to go back to their home country to rebuild the temple, along with the resources and authority to do so.

However, even with the king's backing, it was not an easy project. Ezra 3:3 tells us that "Despite their fear of the peoples around them, they built the altar on its foundation and sacrificed burnt offerings on it to the LORD . . ." Apparently those people who had occupied the land for the last seventy years where not happy with the Jews who were returning to the land. Later on, the opposition became so fierce that they had to carry a sword with them at all times, even when working, for fear of attack from the surrounding people (Nehemiah 4:16-18).

When I contemplated this scenario, I was reminded of Revelation 12:10-11, which tells of Satan being hurled down to the earth to accuses believers day and night. However, the believers were able to overcome Satan's temptations with three weapons They overcame. . .

1. By the blood of the Lamb (that is, they put their faith in Jesus who shed his blood on the cross, died and rose again).
2. By the word of their testimony (they were willing to publicly confess Jesus as their Lord and Savior).
3. And because they didn't love their lives so much as to shrink from death (they would confess Jesus even if it meant they would die as a result).

Similarly, these Jews in the days of Ezra, were working to build the altar, publicly, out in the open, unprotected, in obedience to God. As a result, they, too, overcame through their perseverance and faithfulness. Read the story to see how they did it and the strategy they used.

Maybe we need to take a lesson from these people of old. There is a reason we are called "the silent majority," and it is not a complementary one. Could it be that we hide in our homes and churches and keep our faith to ourselves on the street in public because "we fear the people around us?" The truth is, we will not overcome if we do not speak up where we can be heard. That's a given.
