that the Assessor requests. The TOWN OF YORK has an ordinance for the confidentiality of information about income and expense that is provided to the Assessor under this paragraph which provides exemptions for persons using information in the discharge of duties

The information that it is inaccurate is not subject to the right of inspection and copying under Section 19.35(1) of Wis. Statutes.

The Board shall hear upon oath, by telephone, all ill or disabled persons who present to the Board a letter from a physician, surgeon

AND GOD SAYS . . .

In chapter 19 of the book of Acts I read about a silversmith named Demetrius. It seems he had a very profitable business making idols for the goddess Artemis and Paul's preaching was cutting into his profits. Needless to say he was upset by this and so he devised a plan to stop Paul. He got the people of the city together and stirred them up by telling them how Paul was belittling Artemis and undermining her glory.

In truth, Demetrius really didn't care about the goddess, he was just concerned about the profit he made from her. So he started a riot to try to destroy Paul. He really didn't use facts. In fact, to him, the facts got in the way. The only thing that mattered to him was his personal profit so he used the people of the city to protect his interests by stirring them up.

Then, as I read on, in chapter 21 of Acts, I read of some Jews from the province of Asia stirring up Jews in Jerusalem against Paul. They convinced the people to take hold of Paul to kill him, using falsehoods and assumptions. But the Roman commander caught wind of this disturbance and took Paul into custody, which saved Paul's life.

When reading these stories I couldn't help thinking of the tactics used by the many various groups to support their relativistic ideas of today. None of these groups are really interested in learning the facts. Their only interest is to stir up the people using whatever means possible to promote their cause.

It is true, it seems, that history repeats itself as we are seeing greater and greater injustices carried out. For example, the biology teacher who was fired for teaching that males have a Y chromosome and a female has an X chromosome. Even though he has taught this for 20 years, suddenly it is forbidden to teach it today.

What is the real issue? Is it that those who hold onto basic scientific truth are intolerant and need to be cancelled, or is it that those who believe in relativism, cannot accept truth of any kind. Their only defense against the truth is to stir up the emotions of other relativist to stop the truth from being spoken. It is important that we understand that these people cannot be reasoned with because the truth will expose their lies. But that does not mean we stop speaking truth. To the contrary, we need to speak the truth all the more, loud and clear. Just be ready to suffer the consequences of doing so.

Pet of the Week

"PRESCOTT"
Prescott is the CCHS Pet of the Week!

Prescott is a 10-week old Heeler mix. He came to CCHS with 5 of his siblings from a local farm when they had too many puppies to care for. As you can see in his picture, Prescott is a very handsome boy! He has a short-haired black, white, gray and tan coat, with typical Heeler markings and lots of speckles. Prescott weighs about 16# and is already neutered, vaccinated and microchipped. He is a typical Heeler puppy, with lots of energy and a zeal for life. He will do best with an active lifestyle to burn off some of that energy. He's also a super smart guy, so training and activities to keep him busy will help keep him out of trouble! If you're looking for an adorable new friend, please consider Prescott! You can submit your adoption application for Prescott right on our website: www.cchs-petshelter.org/applying-to-adopt. We have lots of wonderful pets available for adoption now, so please check them all out and then stop in to visit!

Do you have a love for cats and dogs and have been thinking it would be nice to help out at CCHS? Well, now's your chance! Whether it's a few hours a week, one day a month, or something in between, this is your opportunity to try it out. We are very much in need of volunteers! You can learn more and sign up on our website: <https://www.cchs-petshelter.org/volunteer> or email April at cchsoutreach1@gmail.com.
