AND GOD SAYS . . .

It is impossible to exhaust the teaching on the grace of God. It is just too encompassing and extensive. Yet, in this short article I would like to address just three examples of God's grace and one correction to a common misunderstanding of God's grace.

First, I see the curse upon Adam and Eve as a demonstration of God's grace. It is God's graciousness to us that kept Him from walking away from us after Adam sinned and just leaving us to our own destruction. Instead He graciously placed upon us a curse fitting our act of rebellion so that we would constantly be reminded that we are not sufficient in our selves and realize our need of Him.

His second act of grace was to place an angel with a fiery sword to prevent us from finding our way back to the garden and possibly eating from the tree of life. For you see, if we would eat of that tree, the result would be living in our fallen state forever, without any hope of victory over our suffering and impending death — both physically and spiritually.

This brings to the third act of grace, and that is, allowing us to experience suffering and happiness. To understand this we need to understand that we can only understand the unknown through what we already know. That is why the Star Trek series cannot come up with any life form that doesn't have the familiar characteristics of life forms that we already know. There is truly "nothing new under the sun."

Therefore, God in His great grace allows us to suffer so that we might begin to comprehend the terrible suffering of hell and desire not to go there. And He allows us to enjoy times of happiness and joy so that we could begin to understand the fantastic hope of heaven and desire to go there.

The final thought I would make in this article is that there is a mistaken idea that God's grace will never give up on us. That is just not true. God says, "My spirit shall not always strive with man" (Gen 6:3). God also warns us at least five times in Hebrews not to harden our hearts today because "now (today) is the time of God's favor, now is the day of salvation" (2 Corinthians 6:2). He does not guarantee grace to be saved tomorrow. So, if you have not already, will you respond to God's grace today by putting your faith in Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior? Today may be your last opportunity.

Clark County Humane Society's
Pet of the Week

"CLAUDIA"
Claudia is the
CCHS Pet of the Week!

Claudia is a 4 year old Standard Poodle. She is a spayed female who is 4 years old and she weighs 49#. Claudia was rescued from a breeding facility where life wasn't so good. Claudia is a very pretty girl with a curly coat that's black and gray. But Claudia is a shy girl. She just didn't get much human interaction before coming to CCHS. She wants so badly to trust people and make friends, but her shyness keeps holding her back. She has been at CCHS for 4 months now, but she is still nervous meeting new people. She will need to find a special home that is prepared to deal with all the issues of a puppy mill survivor. She will also benefit from having a fenced in yard, as her shyness makes her a flight risk. Rescuing a puppy mill dog can be very challenging, but it can also be extremely rewarding. If you would like to give Claudia a chance at the life she deserves, please consider adopting her today. You can submit your adoption application for Claudia right on our website: www.cchs-petshelter.org/applying-to-adopt. We have lots of wonderful pets available for adoption now, so please check them all out and then stop in to visit!!

Do you have a love for cats and dogs and have been thinking it would be nice to help out at CCHS? Well, now's your chance! Whether it's a few hours a week, one day a month, or something in between, this is your opportunity to try it out. We are very much in need of volunteers! You can learn more and sign up on our website: <https://www.cchs-petshelter.org/volunteer> or email April at cchsoutreach1@gmail.com. Come join our CCHS volunteer family!
